Holes in the Road Filled With the Explosive.

Two Officers and Thirteen Spanish Soldiers Blown to Pieces.

Entire Company Desert and Join the Rebels—Spanish Soldier Court-Martialed and Sent for Desertion—Insurgents Forced to Retreat After a Sharp Fight.

(Special Correspondence.)

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Sept. 7.—Very West, Fla., Sept. 17.—In the engagement near the village of Cienfuegos, Cuba, Jose Maceo in Santa Maria Sieveigne, near Ramon de Las Yaguas, on August 31, the rebels had prepared more than sixty holes filled with dynamite on the different roads leading to the town. When the engagement was over a Spanish regiment marched past one of the traps and the dynamite exploded, blowing to pieces Lieut. Francisco Ruiz, Capt. Gregorio Romero and thirteen soldiers. When the troops saw this they were so filled with terror that an entire company deserted to the rebels and remained with them.

During the engagement between Spanish Gen. Linera and Rebel Leader Dr. E. R. De Leon, at Ciudad, near Manzanillo, the Spaniards took a Spanish soldier prisoner who had joined the insurgents at the beginning of the revolution. His name was Pedro Rojita Estrechez, and he belonged to the engineers of the army. He was brought to the city, tried in court martial and sentenced to death. He was shot Monday morning in front of the slaughter house, in the presence of all the troops that were in the city. He was so weak and ill that he went to the place of execution in a carriage.

This is the first execution of a rebel in this city. He was taken prisoner because, during the engagement, he went into the Spanish ranks to obtain arms and enlisted Spanish lieutenants and Cuban volunteers.

HAVANA, Sept. 17.—A dispatch from Santa Clara says the insurgent leader, Seraph Sanchez sent a squad of thirteen men with orders to destroy the village of Punta Alenza by fire. The rebels attempted to execute the order but were not successful and were driven away.

A force of 600 rebels made an attack a day or two ago upon a plantation at Altamira, where a force of government troops had been sent to quell it. They were forced to retreat after a sharp fight in which many of their number were killed and wounded. The government loss was five killed and three wounded.

A DECISION,

Which Has Been Awaited With Interest by Members of the Legal Fraternity.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 17.—A common pleas court Monday Judge Delbaugh rendered a decision which has been awaited with great interest by members of the legal fraternity, the point in question, it is believed, having no precedent in any of the states. The last suit, in which Colin Ross became involved with his neighbor, Mrs. Rosenberg, of No. 580 St. Clair street, at the heat of the argument Ross hurled a rock at the woman, the stone striking her and striking her little daughter, Bertha, on the head. The wound inflicted was not considered dangerous but Ross was convicted in the police court on a charge of assault, was fined and sentenced. Some time later the Rosenberg child, who had been struck by the assault made by Ross, was re-arrested on the charge of manslaughter and the grand jury found a true bill against him. His lawyer entered a demurrer but Judge Delbaugh's decision holds firm on the indictment and he will, therefore, be tried for manslaughter after once having paid the penalty for his assault on the victim whom, since that conviction, died of her injuries.

TIMELESS TEMPERANCE TOPICS.

The Ledger's Free Lance Fires Some Solid Shot into the Camp.

Whisky is a menace to all law.

Liquor overrides all restraint.

It can debauch all constituted authority.

The whisky traffic violates the law at every turn.

The liquor traffic holds the law at arm's length.

The rum traffic is a violator of law from its conception to its completion.

Whisky is a curse to all who are not too far removed away from the Poles.

Liquor selling in its very essence is inimical to law, order and security.

The man who sells rum is per force an enemy to law, society and to religion.

The whisky seller is the natural foe to everything that elevates, enlightens or Christianizes.

The liquor seller is the natural ally of the jail, the Penitentiary and the gallows.

It is as utterly impossible for a man who makes or sells whisky to possess a spark of the religion of the Bible as it is for a son to resemble his father.

The man who tries to mix liquor selling and religion may possibly succeed in deceiving a few shallow-pated men and women for a little season, but the time shall soon roll around when his hypocrisy and deception shall be laid bare to the eyes of all—and when he and Satan shall continue business indefinitely.
